Terms & Conditions

Hereinafter, the Alpaca Livestock Producers and Co-operators Association sales committee will be referred to as the "Sale Management".

1. It is clearly understood that the 'Sale Management' is acting only as an intermediary between Buyer and Consignor and is not responsible for any failure by either party to live up to its obligations. 'Sale Management' assumes no responsibility, liability, obligation, duty, either singular or plural and make no warranties as to title, or quality including but not limited to health, blemishes, defects, soundness, or any other conditions of entry, and makes no other kind of warranty whatsoever.
2. Neither the Auctioneer, 'Sale Management', or any agents make any representation or warranties whatsoever with respect to the sale alpacas. All representations contained herein are made by the seller only.
3. The sale and all transactions between the Buyer and the Seller will be governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta.
4. The highest bidder is to be the Buyer and if any dispute arises between two or more bidders, the alpaca in dispute shall immediately be put up again for advance bids. If there is no advance, the alpaca shall go to the person whom the auctioneer recognized as having the last bid. The auctioneer's decision shall be final. The auctioneer reserves the right to reject any or all bids. Bidding will be carried out in Canadian Dollars.
5. All information listed under "Consignor notes" is supplied solely by the consignor.
6. When an alpaca is sold, the Buyer shall sign the 'Acknowledgment of Purchase' form. Title passes when a buyer signs the acknowledgment at which time all risk and responsibility for the alpaca passes to the Buyer.
7. All Alpacas will have been Veterinary inspected & will have a signed Pre-purchase form available.
8. Terms of the Sale are cash and payment in full must be made to the cashier immediately after the sale. Valid personal checks will be accepted with proper identification.
9. If any person shall purchase a lot and not pay for it as described above, the Auctioneer and/or the Seller shall have the right to resell the lot or, at their option, bring action for specific performance, in which event the buyer agrees to pay all costs of such suit and reasonable attorney's fees. In the event of resale, the defaulting Buyer agrees to pay all cost of resale plus price deficiency.
10. Every effort has been made to assure correctness of the catalogue, however the Sale Management is not responsible for errors or omissions. Any known corrections shall be announced at the sale. Prior to printing the catalogue, you will have the opportunity to proof read the information on your alpaca.
11. Statements made from the Auctioneer's Box shall take precedence over any and all statements made in the catalogue.
12. Any person attending the auction does so at their own risk and no liability, duties, obligations, and/or responsibilities shall be imposed upon the 'Sales Management' or Auctioneer for any accident, injury, mishap, theft, damage, and/or any other harm regardless of the source of imposition.
13. The Seller warrants that their alpaca is free from any encumbrances whatsoever.
14. The 'Sale Management' reserves the right to withdraw any alpaca from the sale without liability to anyone.
15. All registration certificates will be withheld by Sale Management until all checks clear the bank. At such time they, along with the transfer fees will be sent to the appropriate registry.
16. Foreign buyers must contact 'Sale Management' regarding quarantine and export of alpacas.
17. Canadian buyers planning to board their purchases until a later date, must make arrangements with the previous owner or the 'Sale Management'.
